

AMANDA BISHOP – “JULIA” GILLARD

Amanda plays our country's first female ex Prime Minister, both on screen (ABC TV's At Home With Julia, Wednesday Night Fever) and stage (the Sydney Theatre Company's yearly Wharf Revue).

After Julia's exit from politics, Amanda has continued to play 'Julia' for special events and in the theatre. If your event is interested in the current "Julia", with her various appointments both academic and international, then please enquire to LMCM.

Amanda's "Julia" is warm, strong, fun, musical and humorous. Her writing team are experienced, award-winning political satirists and playwrights.

'Julia Gillard does not do Julia Gillard this well' – Mia Freedman, Mamamia.com.au.

Some of "Julia" 's appearances include the Helpmann Awards Live Broadcast, Australian Writer's Guild Awards, Queensland Media Awards, Teacher's Federation, Sydney Theatre Company Foundation Events, Olympic team fundraisers, Sydney Swans pre-match finals dinner, private birthdays, charity events and media campaigns for radio, TV and print.

Client feedback:

"Julia is a star" Sydney Theatre Company Board member.

"A HUGE thanks once again for your sensational performance on Saturday night. It was brilliant and everyone loved it. I am still getting emails about the evening!!" – Janene Thoma, Sydney Swans

"What a wonderful gal is Amanda. Not only is she extremely talented but so lovely. Truly Ms JG was a serious success. Lots of new fans and not just in the political corner... the best JG impersonator in the country. Amanda was a great highlight of the evening." – Anna Magnus, MEAA, The Queensland Media Awards

Amanda's other corporate event history includes clients such as Newspaper Awards, Sydney City Council, Art Gallery NSW, News Limited, Northern Territory Australia Day Council, Lazard, Toshiba, Qantas Tourism, David Jones and Leighton Construction.

Useful video links:

"What A Swell Party" Four Labor Prime Ministers' song on ABC TV:

Q&A Christmas episode:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=meIfbqWdb28>

"I Dreamed A Dream" ABC TV Wednesday Night Fever, the week Kevin Rudd resumed Prime Ministership leading up to election:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=YLdsfuDrg0M>