

ALYCE PLATT

SINGER / ACTRESS / PERFORMER

Alyce Platt became a household name on the popular drama Sons and Daughters and went on to be one of Australia's highest profile Television performers, co-hosting Sale Of The Century.

Her acting career has spanned 25 years and seen her feature in countless television series, films and theatre productions. Recently she has featured in: Rush, City Homicide, Satisfaction, Carla Cametti Pd, The Elephant Princess and stars with Tony Martin in the critically acclaimed short film CROPPED which was nominated for a 2012 AFI.

Alyce has been performing in her own shows and bands for the past 25 years including her successful corporate band In The Flesh and is a celebrated singer, songwriter and recording artist having released three acclaimed albums www.alyceplatt.com

Alyce has been playing guitar and writing songs since she was 12 years old and released her own 'original' songs as an EP, 'Cowboys In The Attic' to much acclaim www.alyceplatt.com which sparked interest locally and internationally, leading to gigs at the 'Mink' and 'The Gig' on Melrose in L.A.

She has been special guest performer at many events around Australia and appeared along side such luminaries as Hugh Jackman, at the infamous Red Ball. Alyce and Hugh performed a duet together bringing the house down.

Alyce's debut album, 'Beautiful Death' (released through Sound Vault Records) surprised critics and lead to a new, burgeoning career as a songwriter and musician.

She released a second album in 2004 - Live from the Vault also through Sound Vault Record and appears on the Sound Vault compilation album, 'The Sound of Sunday' with Ross Wilson.